GUILFORD BUILDING TO BE HONORED IN WINDOWS TO PAST PROJECT

A UNCG team of museum studies graduate students led by Sam Berton has meticulously researched the history of our building and people who worked here. The students have created a 2 x 3 foot, window-front, exhibit panel featuring photographs and write-ups about The Guilford Building.
For six months, beginning December 7, 2011, the panel will be on display in the Elm Street window of the leasing office. The eye-catching exhibit is intended to draw passersby to our window to learn more about The Guilford Building.
This project is part of a larger, grant-funded project called "Windows to the Past: People, Places & Memory in Downtown Greensboro."

NO SMOKING POLICY NECESSARY
Our building insurers insist that we adhere to a No Smoking policy. Please help us avoid insurance problems by going outside the building at street level to smoke.

The building will be closed for Thanksgiving: November 24 and 25.
Be sure to bring your front door key with you if you visit the building during the holiday.
